Essay or Video

Selection is based on each applicant's completed application, which must be accompanied with EITHER an essay to a maximum of 500 words OR a video to a maximum of 2-3 minutes. In either instance, the following should be covered:

1. Your volunteer/community involvement and/or extracurricular activities over the past five years.
2. What you are planning to study and how that is informed by your experiences including volunteering.
3. What is your ultimate life and/or career goals and how will your degree help you make the impact you want to make on the world?
4. How will the Ted Rogers Scholarship help with your studies and reaching your goal?

If choosing the essay option, please copy and paste it into the comment box below. Essays should be a maximum of 500 words.

If choosing the video option, it should be a maximum of 2-3 minutes long. The selection committee would like to see you in the video – please limit your use of cartoons or animations. Post your video to Youtube and provide a link in the below comment box. Please ensure that your video is set to Public (in your Privacy Setting on YouTube). No copyrighted music or images allowed. Please have fun when making your video!

Note: Applicants grant Rogers the right to use their names and video submissions for program publicity, marketing, and promotional purposes.

Supporting Documentation

As part of this application, one reference is requested (but not required) to support the application. The reference may come from an individual who is not related to the applicant and is familiar with your volunteer, community involvement and/or extracurricular activities (E.g. a Mentor, a Big Brothers Big Sisters staff member, Coach, etc.) Any references submitted should include the reference's contact information. The person writing the reference should describe their relationship to the applicant.

Please upload the reference as a Word document or PDF below.

Note: scholarship recipients will also be asked if they are willing to do media interviews, and if yes, will be asked to upload a recent headshot photograph on the Rogers portal. Their name and photo may be used. This headshot will need to meet the following criteria:

- Be a headshot of the recipient from the shoulders up. Similar to a passport photo, but unlike a passport photo, please smile!
- Be taken against a white or light cream background only.
- Be in high-resolution (does not need to be professionally taken – a phone camera can be used).
